Banned by UN, Real Journalists Speak Out

MADRID — At the request of the Canadian government, journalists from Canada’s Rebel News were banned from United Nations summits—all for asking real questions. In this interview with The New American magazine from the UN “COP25” climate summit, Rebel News’ Sheila Gunn Reid and Kean Bexte explain how it happened, and why. The incredible irony is that Kean is literally the only journalist on Earth to have confronted establishment-backed Swedish climate activist Greta Thunberg with serious questions, while the thousands of establishment propagandists inside the summit act more like cheerleaders.
