Tim Walz, More Extreme Than He Appears

Democrats have chosen a Midwestern governor who contradicts their cultish obsession with race and sex as Kamala Harris' running mate. Tim Walz was likely chosen to help with the union vote and to keep two upper Midwestern states that are in play this November - Michigan and Minnesota — in the Democrats win' column. As a former national guardsman, school teacher, and football coach, Walz projects a moderate, rational pedigree. But his voting record and his time as governor suggests a Leftist's radical.
