President Trump must kill the United Nations’ man-made climate “con job” once and for all by withdrawing from the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, or the Rio Earth Summit Treaty, signed by President George H.W. Bush in 1992, said Climate Depot editor Marc Morano to The New American’s Alex Newman. Calling out the hypocrisy of jet-setting diplomats at climate summits is good fun, but without concrete and decisive action from Trump, Morano explained, the “man-made climate change” grift will press on.
