Trump Path to 2020 Victory & Destruction of Fake Media

In this episode of Behind the Deep State, host Alex Newman breaks down the many paths Donald Trump still has to victory in the fraud-plagued 2020 election. If Trump can expose and overturn the fraud in just a handful of the states that are still in play—Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin, Georgia, Arizona, Nevada, and more—he wins. Even if some of those states' electors to the Electoral College are disqualified due to the fraud, Trump could win as Congress makes the decision on the presidency in January under the 12th Amendment, where each state gets one vote. Most states, of course, are Republican, giving the incumbent president a significant advantage. Trump and his lawyers have also been mopping the floor with the fake media and the lies being spread by the establishment propaganda machine masquerading as the press. Naturally, the media started blatantly lying about the historic press conference as soon as it was finished.
