Trump to “Change His Position” On Climate, Claims UN Protest Leader

Through connections to environmental leaders like Robert F. Kennedy Jr., Donald Trump will change his mind on man-made “climate change,” claimed Sharif Jamil to The New American’s Alex Newman.

Jamil, a member of the board of directors and council board for RFK Jr.’s Waterkeeper Alliance, helped lead a staged and highly organized “protest” inside the heavily secured United Nations’ COP29 summit in Baku, Azerbaijan.

Signs and chants shared by the group included demanding climate reparations and the full elimination of gas and oil. Of course, if accomplished, their taxis, buses, and planes would be unable to get them back home after the summit ends on November 22.
