The Colorado Education Association recently passed a resolution condemning capitalism, a reminder that American teachers unions have a long history of pushing socialist-communist brainwashing onto America's youth. Also, Oklahoma just blacklisted more than a dozen financial firms for their embargoes on fossil-fuel industries; the White House announced moves to promote "responsible artificial intelligence innovation," a scheme really aimed at making sure the emerging new technology aligns with woke values; Constitutionalists defeated another attempt at an Article V Convention, this time in Iowa; and Europe is holding its own CPAC, where it touts the virtues of Judeo-Christian civilization and takes shots at degenerate wokeism.

In the second part of the show, R. Cort Kirkwood discusses his TNA cover story, "No Case, No Matter: Destroy Trump," and TNA editors Gary Benoit and Steve Bonta continue their series on principles.
