According to the legacy media, the Harris-Walz ticket has turned into an electoral juggernaut. Meanwhile, the hapless Trump-Vance ticket embarrasses itself and falls farther and farther behind. Is it all astroturfed hype and gaslighting, or is a Harris come-from-behind victory in November a very real possibility?

Also in this episode:

The globalists at the World Health Organization just declared a global health emergency over monkeypox—just in time for election season.

The election in Venezuela was so corrupt that even the United Nations is acknowledging it.
