Laken Riley's killer, an illegal alien, was just sentenced to life in prison. But her murder should've never happened. Her killer only got to her after taking a taxpayer-funded flight to Georgia, where Riley was a student. The Biden Regime's border policies should be investigated as an act of treason, according to at least one former border official who believes the invasion was intentionally orchestrated.

Also in today's show:

The presidential election may be over, but Pennsylvanians are threatening to oust local officials who flouted election laws and pose an enduring threat to fair elections;

While the world wakes up to the truth about the climate agenda, the United Nations in partnership with the Marxist president of Brazil is launching an initiative to suppress true climate information.
