The Joe Biden White House is directing its ire at the United States Supreme Court. Biden and Kamala Harris are advocating changes that have no chance of passing through this Congress. While the proposed changes are indicative of the Left's frustration with the Court, could the real agenda behind this move be to distract from the inconvenient truth about Democrat support?

Also in this episode:

The Media are working overtime to convince the public of her worthiness;

The cost of wokeness in universities and manufacturing is piling up.
