Just days after French officials arrested Telegram Chief Pavel Durov, Brazil banned Elon Musk's social media platform, X. Considering that back in October, Brazil suffered a U.S.-style rigged election, this development should surprise no one. But it does trigger questions that go beyond Brazil, including those related to America's role in this development and whether Musk is in the crosshairs of free speech opponents in the Land of the Free.

Also in this episode:

A United Nations official is caught on camera admitting the cooky conspiracy theories about global government are true;

Is Trump getting soft on abortion?
