Kamala Harris recently gave an unhinged address reeking of Deep State desperation, in her official White House capacity, accusing Donald Trump of being a fascist. She read the message from her handlers and walked away without taking any questions. Meanwhile, DHS officials are telling media outlets that talk of civil war may lead to actual unrest. Is a probable Trump win making the Deep State more dangerous than ever?

Also in this episode:

Kamala and Trump both agree the USMCA deserves a second look;

Today is United Nations Day. We look at the real intent and disastrous results of this globalist organization.
