The Biden Justice Department says it's going after Russian propaganda designed to influence Americans' votes this November. This week it announced that it indicted two people connected to the Russian state media network, RT. It may well be the case that the Russians prefer Donald Trump this November, but given this administration's illegal and unethical targeting of Trump and conservatives in general, are we being set up for mass censorship just in time for the election?

Also in this episode:

DEI is dying, as more companies ditch the racist requirement;

Investors are banking on Christian entertainment. Even Amazon and Netflix are seeing an opportunity to showcase faith-based content that speaks to a large but underserved demographic.
