Elon Musk is now offering a $1 million dollar daily lottery prize for swing state voters who sign a petition in support of the First and Second Amendments. Democrats are calling foul.

Also in this episode:

- Cuba's aging power grid went down last week, and has yet to be restored. How much more can the backwards communist nation endure?
- The mysterious denial of service attacks against Internet Archive, the Internet's premier fact-checking resource, continue—and just in time for the election.
- Interview with Jon Schrock, National Field Director of the John Birch Society
