With Title 42 ending on Thursday, many were concerned that the already-high rate of illegal migration was going to worsen and destroy whatever shoddy remains of a national border still exist. But according to available data, the expected surge didn't happen. Have we seen the worst of the border crisis, and are we getting the truth? Also, House Oversight Committee Chairman James Comer said he lost an informant who may have information about alleged corruption centered around President Biden and his family; Trump Derangement Syndrome is back thanks to Donald Trump's performance during CNN's town hall meeting; and a new documentary about the twisted partnership between Big Brother, Big Pharma, and the American healthcare system premieres this month.

In the second part of the show, TNA's editor-in-chief Gary Benoit interviews investigative journalist William F. Jasper about just how out of control the intelligence community is, and Gary and TNA executive senior editor Steve Bonta discuss another timeless principle.
