Donald Trump will nominate Robert F. Kennedy Jr. to lead the Department of Health and Human Services and make America healthier. Americans' collective health decline is the subject of TNA magazine's latest cover story, Making America Sick One Bite At A Time. In this episode, we break down our national health problem and analyze whether RFK is the right man for the job.

Also in this episode:

Alex Newman and Andrew Mueller report from COP29, where the globalists are still pretending the climate crisis is real and urgent global action is necessary;

A U.S. district court judge obliged a J6er who asked that his trial be delayed until Trump is president, agreeing that his White House return could make the proceedings a moot point;

Conservatives' crusade for term limits is based on erroneous thinking that it would solve the problems its advocates.
