The father of the Apalachee High School shooter in Winder, Georgia, is facing second degree murder charges and 180 years in prison because of his son's alleged mass shooting. This isn't the first time parents have been held responsible for their children's demented killing sprees. Where is this heading? Who or what else will be held responsible by proxy?

Also in this show:

The latest jobs report indicates a sputtering economy, but could it be worse than they're telling us?

A high-ranking PR official who worked with Alvin Bragg admitted on hidden camera that his Bragg's anti-Trump crusade is purely political without any basis in precedent.
