The border invasion orchestrated by the federal government is prompting some states to enact — or try to enact — legislation that closely aligns with federal laws that aren't being enforced. We look at what Florida, Iowa, Georgia, Oklahoma, and Texas are doing — or trying to do — to counter the migrant invasion.

Also in this episode:

@ 24:23 | The Trump campaign and Republican National Committee announced the rollout of an election integrity program. Is it any good?

@ 43:43 | Gen Z is skipping college and going to work with their hands. What does this mean for American society?
