The Biden Regime's open border policies have made the FBI's job a lot harder recently. FBI Director Christopher Wray testified before the House Oversight Committee that just in the last month, agents have arrested many suspected terrorists who've likely come in through the southern border. He also described specific attempts by Iranian-backed terrorists to kill Americans on U.S. soil and warned of an impending coordinated attack.

Also in this episode:

Biden's farewell address fizzles.

Netanyahu addresses Congress while protests rage outside.

Disgraced New Jersey Senator Bob Menendez will resign next month.
