In this episode we continue our scrutiny of the corrupt Biden Administration, including the finding of a bag of cocaine on the White House premises. We also cover President

Biden's July 4th address, in which he unironically called for more gun confiscation. And we take a whimsical look at Hollywood's new Communist China-friendly movie "Barbie."

In the second half of our show, The New American's Alex Newman interviews former ICE chief Thomas Homan about the border crisis in Conversations That Matter.
