The new Kamala Harris-Tim Walz ticket is taking Middle America by a storm, according to pollsters and press accounts. But how much of it is overhyped astroturfing and response bias? And what do these two actually stand for, anyway? Campaign crunch time is upon us, and we take a serious look at what the latest developments may mean for this fall's elections—and what the Democratic ticket really stands for, behind the fervent media hype.

Also on today's show:

We discuss the illusion versus the reality of presidential and congressional elections with John Birch Society CEO Bill Hahn.
