The Republican National Convention is just a little over a month away, and for the first time in its history RNC leaders are preparing to accommodate a nominee who may be in prison. Donald Trump, who was convicted of 34 felonies for unethical bookkeeping, is scheduled for sentencing just days before the convention.

Also in this episode:

24:44 | Mainstream media can no longer ignore deaths caused by the Covid-19 injection.

38:38 | Israel is on the verge of opening another front in their war.

50:36 | Forget secession, let's try nullification.
