Donald Trump's pick to lead the corrupt and politicized FBI has triggered a torrent of screeching and gnashing of teeth among Establishment figures, including warmonger John Bolton. Kash Patel believes the Russia Collusion investigation was a hoax and political hit job, the 2020 election was stolen, and that FBI headquarters should be shuttered and agents scattered throughout the country.

Also in this episode:

Joe Biden pardons his son despite having repeatedly said he wouldn't;

Trump's tariff threat extracts promises of tightened northern border security from Canadians;

The latest violent outbreak in Syria is yet another reminder of why we need to get American soldiers home.
