When the American people voted for Donald Trump to be the next president of the United States, they voted not only for him but for the policies they believe he will execute — and also for his many appointments who will have much to do with executing the president's policies. So how good are his appointments? In this episode, we will take a look at some of Cabinet picks to shed much-needed light on this question.

Also in this episode, we will look at what Dr. Ron Paul has to say about the deportation of illegal immigrants and the use of the military for the purpose.
