There exists a diabolical international network of people conspiring to destroy the United States, the sovereignty of every nation, and the liberty of all people, and create a totalitarian one-world government to be ruled by them. Over the last eight years, the conspirators have been blatant in a manic mission to destroy Donald Trump, used a fabricated crisis as an excuse to strip average people of their unalienable rights, pushed onto billions of people an unproven and destructive technology, and stolen the American presidency from the rightful winner. Considering all of this — as well as an additional train of abuses — at what point is armed resistance justified? In this episode, the editors of The New American tackle one of the most complex and serious questions, one deserving the utmost care.
