It's official: The U.S. House of Representatives is opening an impeachment inquiry into Joe Biden, who is suspected of being utterly corrupt. He's suspected of indirectly selling political influence to foreign nationals of enemy nations, allegations he has denied. Could this be the beginning of the end for Joe Biden?

Other stories in today's show include:

@ 11:00 | Biden's son Hunter skipped out on a subpoenaed deposition and threw his own press conference instead — just before contempt of Congress proceedings against him were announced;

@ 21:52 | Medicare data is reinforcing the lethal truth about Covid injections;

@ 32:57 | Wisconsin state legislator Ty Bodden talks about the rank-choice voting agenda that Republicans are helping push in the Dairy State.
