Inside the United Nations: The Summit of the Future

In this presentation, recorded on October 1, 2024, at FreedomProject Academy in Appleton, Wisconsin, Dr. Steve Bonta, executive senior editor of The New American, discusses the outcome of the UN's Summit of the Future, held in New York City in September 22-23, 2024. Reviewing key documents from the conference — the “Pact for the Future” and the “Global Digital Compact” — he explains how the documents advocate policies that would transform the UN into a true world government, in line with its original purpose. Bonta concludes his presentation with a clear call to Get US Out! of the United Nations.
