Charlie Kirk deeply believed that the most effective way to halt the mass indoctrination of children into collectivist ideologies is to remove government from education altogether. Parents—not the state—bear the primary responsibility for directing and overseeing their children’s education, explained Turning Point USA’s chief education officer, Dr. Hutz Hertzberg, in an interview with The New American’s Andrew Muller at AmFest. According to Kirk and his team, one of the most powerful steps Americans can take to spark a renaissance of liberty is to withdraw children from government schools and deprive the government education system of its influence and funding.
