Stefano L. Forte, president of the New York Young Republican Club (NYYRC), discusses the New York City mayoral election, including Andrew Cuomo's plea that the city's Republican voters vote for him, why voters should elect Curtis Sliwa, and why Zohran Mamdani would be a disaster for the city. Forte talks about his goals as club president, the recent presentation delivered by JBS Regional Field Coordinator Dave Giordano, and the upcoming NYYRC annual gala in December.
