Communism and Islam are rapidly infiltrating the United States through what is known as the “red-green axis,” a coordinated effort aimed at conquering and dismantling America both as a nation and as an idea, warned legendary historian, Turning Point Education leader, and close associate of Charlie Kirk, William Federer. Speaking with The New American’s Andrew Muller at AmFest, Federer explained that stopping this advance requires Americans to understand the historical origins of the Quran, the life of Muhammad, and the strategies employed by radical Islamists to subjugate Western societies. He emphasized that this knowledge must be paired with decisive action—particularly halting mass migration into the United States—if the country is to be preserved.
