As America and family unravel thanks to decades of turning our backs on the true and living God, Christians can and should unite to save the nation, argued nationally syndicated radio host and well-known apologist Alex McFarland on Conversations That Matter with The New American magazine’s Alex Newman. Part of the problem is that the nation has chosen the gods of narcissism and nihilism, he warned. Symptoms of the madness are everywhere as, for instance, polling data show millennials want “misgendering” to be a criminal offense. But McFarland believes that, with God’s help, America can be preserved and restored. He has a lot of advice for Americans and for Christians, including “be encouraged.” This is a time of opportunity, he said.
