

Polish Pastor Exposes Commies in High Places

In this exclusive interview with The New American magazine, Polish Pastor Paweł Chojecki highlights the fact that communist operatives remain embedded throughout the levers of power in Poland. Unlike the Nazis, communists were not punished after the ostensible collapse of communism in Poland, he says. Instead, the Polish leader explains that they were rewarded with powerful new positions in the “new” system. This is one of the major dangers confronting Poland and other nations today.
