

Hungary Resists EU Assault on Sovereignty, Christianity

In this exclusive interview with The New American magazine, Hungarian Secretary of State for Public Diplomacy and Relations Zoltán Kovács outlined his nation's resistance to the European Union's assault on freedom and Christianity. He explained the reason why the internationalists in Brussels are working to flood Europe with illegal immigrants. And he noted that centralized control was already tried in Europe under communism, and it failed miserably. Kovács touted great relations with the United States and vowed that Hungary would continue defending its people and Christian civilization.
