Saudi Arrested in Christmas Market Terror Attack in Germany. Musk: Only AfD Can Save the Country

Nearly a dozen Germans are dead in yet another Christmas market attack made possible by far-left, open-borders politicians who permitted the mass migration of Islamic fanatics into once-safe Germany.

Police have arrested a Saudi national in connection with today's attack in Magdeburg that left 11 dead and almost six dozen injured.

Germans in particular and Europeans in general are familiar with such terror. In 2016, a Muslim linked to ISIS plowed into Berlin's Christmas market. A Muslim murdered 86 in Nice, France, in 2016.

After today's mass murder, the far-left mainstream media, which refuses to identify Islamic terror suspects in headlines, reported that a "car" committed the crimes.

The Attack

The Muslim terrorist plowed into marketgoers in Magdeburg at 7:04 p.m. local time, or about 1:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time in the United States.

Magdeburg is in north-central Germany, about 100 miles west of Berlin on the Elbe River.

"He is said to have been a man from Saudi Arabia who was born in 1974, per Welt," DailyMail.com reported:

According to state leader Reiner Haselhoff, the man is a Saudi doctor who works in Saxony-Anhalt.

German broadcaster MDR reported that a suspected explosive device is currently sitting in the vehicle.

Bild reported that the car was driven "at least 400m (1,300ft) across the Christmas market," per a police spokesperson.

According to emergency services, who have set up tents to immediately treat victims, at least 15 people were "severely" injured. According to Bild, which cited unnamed sources, 11 people were killed in the attack....

Within seconds, countless revellers can be seen fleeing for their lives in the wake of the crash. Separate footage showed children crying loudly as several small crowds of people formed over those injured in the crash, in apparent attempts to help them.

This attack isn't the first explicitly anti-Christian Islamic terror attack — a message from Islamists of what they plan for German Christians when their numbers grow large enough.

Media Reaction

Media reports about the latest Islamic vehicular terror attack fueled disbelief on X. User Wall Street Mav posted multiple headlines that claimed the “car” or “vehicle” committed the crime.

“These evil cars in Germany are out of control,” the feed said. “Why do these cars keep doing this?”

“You don't hate the lying legacy media enough,” X owner Elon Musk wrote over his repost.

Ian Miles Cheong said much the same thing.

“You don't hate the legacy media enough,” he wrote. “The Associated Press uses a passive voice when reporting on the Christmas market terror attack in Magdeburg, Germany. As if the car simply drove itself peacefully, and the affected number of people small and insignificant.”

Continued Cheong:

It wasn't a “group of people” — it was an entirely mass of people whose bodies were flung by the force of the impact, and many more who were crushed beneath the wheels as the vehicle zig zagged its way through the packed market.

“AP stands for Associated Propaganda,” Musk replied.

Others posted video of German cops searching market-going women's purses for knives they carry for self defense.

“German police are now confiscating pocket knives from elderly women at Christmas markets,” Remix X feed reported over video of cops who confiscated a Swiss Army knife:

Exploding knife crime in Germany, which the police openly says is tied to mass immigration, has led to a security state at German Christmas markets.

“Their priorities are completely insane,” Cheong wrote.

Musk Backs AfD

nation's only hope to save it from far-left globalism.

"Only the AfD can save Germany," Musk wrote just hours before the attack over a post from German commentator Naomi Seibt.

Seibt relayed Musk's message after the attack in Magdeburg.

"Only ☐ AND THE AfD CAN SAVE GERMANY☐" she wrote:

The TERROR ATTACK on a CHRISTMAS MARKET in Magdeburg proves:

Our governments, both CDU and SPD, sacrificed us to globalist Marxism.

We must popularize ☐ in Germany to give the AfD a DEMOCRATIC platform.

Elon Musk was right.

"This attack on our Christian values is the result of our disastrous open borders policies," she wrote earlier. "The far-left government left us to DIE. WE NEED TO ABOLISH THE MAINSTREAM MEDIA AND SPREAD THE NEWS ON ☐!"
