

Report From Rio+20: A Look at the “Global Organizers” (Video)

The New American's foreign correspondent Alex Newman observed firsthand just how disorganized the United Nations' global planners were at their Rio+20 sustainability conference in Rio de Janeiro. “What these people are proposing is literally permission to run the planet,” he observed, “yet they cannot run even a simple conference.”

Newman also noted that the would-be managers of the world do not exactly practice what they preach: “They’re sitting here lecturing people that they need to ride their bikes more, that they need to feel guilty about having electricity and consuming fossil fuels. At the same time they’re running the air conditioning full blast with all the doors open throughout this entire complex.”
