Report From Rio+20: The Media Lap Dogs

The New American's foreign correspondent Alex Newman reports from the Rio de Janeiro that the major media watchdogs are not interested in investigating the doomsday claims that UN officials make to justify their global environmental agenda. They are not even interested in listening to what the critics of environmental alarmism have to say. Instead, they serve as reliable lapdogs for the UN, regurgitating the global entity's press releases and statements as if they were holy writ.
